

REMARKS

Claims 3, 15-17, 19, 20 and 26 have been indicated as being directed to allowable subject matter, rewritten in independent form, including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Because of the interrelationship of the claims, and because of the complexities of trying to abide by the U.S. Patent and Trademark labeling rules, applicant has chosen to cancel the existing claims and submit a new set of claims, along with a written road map for the examiner to follow.

Claim 30 is a essentially claims 1-3, with a word change in subparagraph e) "bound together", as opposed to "connected" to be consistent with the language in subparagraph f).

Claim 31 is, in fact, a new claim.

Claim 32 is originally presented Claim 5.

Claim 33 is originally presented Claim 6.

Claim 34 is originally presented Claim 7.

Claim 35 is originally presented Claim 8.

Claim 36 is originally presented Claim 9.

Claim 37 is a combination of Claims 10-12.

Claim 38 is originally presented Claim 13.

Claim 39 is originally presented Claim 14.

Claim 40 is a new claim.

Claim 41 is originally presented Claim 16.

Claim 42 is originally presented Claim 17.

Claim 43 is originally presented Claim 18.

Claim 44 is originally presented Claim 19.

Claim 45 is originally presented Claim 20.

Claim 46 is a new claim.

Claim 47 is a new claim.

Claim 48 is a new claim.

Claim 49 is a combination of original Claims 21, 25 and 26, utilizing slightly different language, but it is believed that it includes all of the limitations of the previously presented claims.

Claim 50 is originally presented Claim 22.

Claim 51 is originally presented Claim 23.

Claim 52 is originally presented Claim 24.

Claim 53 is originally presented Claim 28.

Claim 54 is originally presented Claim 29.

Claims 55-59 are new.

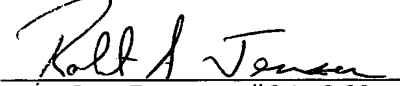

It is believed that all of the claims as presented in this amendment comply with the examiner's requirements, and are either written in independent form, including the indicated allowable subject matter, along with parent and all intervening claims and/or depend from such claims.

It is believed the application is in condition for allowance, and notice thereof is respectfully solicited.

This is to request a one month extension of time and a check for $60 is enclosed.

The Commissioner is authorized to charge any deficiency or credit any overpayment to Deposit Account 07-1900.

Respectfully submitted,
JENSEN & PUNTIGAM, P.S.
